

Greystone Heights Brightwater Experience
May 26 and 27, Extended Day Experiences

Ms. Hanson/Mr. Gordon

55 Grade 6 students + 6 Volunteers

Inquiry Questions: How does Nature keep it's self in balance? How has Nature's balance been affected by human activity over the years?

Monday, May 26
	Hansen	Gordon
10:00-11:00	Nature walk (classroom teacher)	Traditional Knowledge w/ Desai
11:00-12:00	Traditional Knowledge w/ Desai	Nature Walk (classroom teacher)
12:00-12:45	Lunch
12:45-2:15	Session 1 (5 groups)
2:15-3:45	Session 2 (5 groups)
4:00	Bus home

Tuesday, May 27
10:00-11:30	Session 3
11:30-12:15	Lunch
12:15-1:45	Session 4
1:45-3:15	Session 5
3:15-4:00	Giving Back to Brightwater – Native Garden Weeding, watering 4:00 Bus home

5 groups of 11

5 rotating 1.5 hour sessions: science, social studies, art, co-operative games, and photography

Inquiry Questions and Session Descriptions:

Science with Jordan:

How has plant and animal biodiversity on the prairs been affected by human activity? Terrestrial ecological discovery hike to examine plant and animal biodiversity.

Social Studies with Sandra:

Ethnobotany Discovery Hike to share student's researched ethnobotany knowledge of the diversity of plants used by past cultures for survival (food, medicines, tools, shelter and hunting – altalt toss)

Art with Kevin: What are some animals native to the prairies? Prairie animal water colour paintings

Brent: Indigenous and co-operative games

Aaron: photography – Personal vision of Native Prairie