

Brightwater's Support of TRC in Education Calls to Action

10.2 Improving Education attainment levels and success rates

10.3 Supporting culturally appropriate curricula

10.7 Respecting and honoring treaty relationships

43. Implementing United Nations Declarations on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples as the framework for Reconciliation:

Abridged from Article 11

Indigenous Peoples have the right to practice and revitalize their cultural traditions and customs

Provide opportunities for understanding the concept of restitution Abridged from Article 15

Indigenous peoples have the right to the dignity and diversity of their cultures, traditions, histories and aspirations which shall be appropriately reflected in education

Abridged from Article 29

Indigenous peoples have the right to the conservation and protection of the environment

Adapted from Article 31

Indigenous peoples have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their cultural heritage, traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expressions, as well as the manifestations of their sciences, technologies and cultures, including human and genetic resources, seeds, medicines, literatures, designs, sports, and traditional games and visual and performing arts. They also have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their intellectual property over such cultural heritage, traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expression

62.1 Extending curricular understandings about residential schools, treaties and Aboriginal Peoples historical and contemporary contributions to Canada

62.2 Integrating Indigenous Knowledge and teaching methods

63.2 Sharing information and best practices on teaching curriculum related to Aboriginal history

63.3 -.4 Building student and teacher capacity for intercultural understanding, empathy and mutual respect