LISTENING TO OUR COMMUNITY

Earlier this year, members of our school communities were asked for their ideas and opinions in order to inform the Board of Education as it refreshes its strategic plan and to ensure our focus and goals reflect the needs of our evolving community.

The online survey conducted through ThoughtExchange gave families and staff the opportunity to share their thoughts on our schools. Participants could also reflect on the ideas of others by adding stars to comments that most reflected their priorities.

More than 5,700 people participated in the confidential process. They shared almost 11,300 reflections and suggestions on what we are doing well, how Saskatoon Public Schools can improve to best serve students and communities and what you feel our graduates need to be successful in school and in life.

The responses have been gathered for both a division-wide and school-by-school basis and we want to share the results with you. The feedback received through the survey—divided into the key question areas of How We Can Improve, What We Value Most, and What Our Students Need—is available for viewing at: <http://saskatoonpsd.thoughtexchange.info>

We appreciate the valuable contributions of our community during this process. Your voice will inform the ongoing work of the Board of Education as it refreshes our strategic plan and will contribute to planning and decision making as we continue to shape the future of our schools and students.

MOVE TO GROW...

At Saskatoon Public Schools, we teach our students to make positive choices that will support their health and well-being. As educators, we know that a daily opportunity to exercise has a multitude of benefits for our students in the classroom. But additional opportunities to be active every day can bring improved wellness not only for students, but also families and community.

This school year, Saskatoon Public Schools is launching Move To Grow, a campaign to encourage students and families to pursue active transportation options for travelling to and from school. Active transportation is human-powered methods of travel, such as walking or cycling. The benefits are bigger than just physical health. We Move To Grow not only our bodies but also our brains, our independence, our mindset, our mental health, our mood, our family, our friendships, a safer community, a sustainable future, and so much more.

In schools, the Move To Grow campaign will focus on education to help our students understand how they can safely travel to and from school. We know family life is busy and this won't work for everyone every day. But with so much to gain, we hope families will make the investment of time to develop a new active and healthy habit.

How can families Move To Grow?

- Walk to school with your child;
- Park a few blocks away and share a stroll to and from school;
- Work out a safe route for your child to bike to school (your school has neighbourhood maps to help with planning);
- Encourage your child to connect with friends who live nearby with whom they can walk or roll;
- Connect with other school families or your child's friends to develop a walking school bus with each parent/guardian taking turns;
- Review safety tips for walking and biking (the school can provide this information);

Join us in celebrating Move To Grow Day on Friday, September 14 by planning an active start to the school day.
